

Call for Applications

The Scientific Council of the Faculty of Pharmacy of the University of Lisbon, under the proposal of the Scientific Committee of the Master Programme in Biopharmaceutical Sciences, publishes the 2025/2026 Call for Applications:

Master Programme in Biopharmaceutical Sciences 2025/2026

The 2-year Master Course in Biopharmaceutical Sciences is organized in 4 semesters.

This Course enlarges the classical concept of biopharmaceutical sciences by providing scientific, multidisciplinary background on the discovery phase of the drug development process, at advanced level. The programme includes the study of molecular mechanisms of disease, potential therapeutic targets and therapeutic strategies, while motivating students to equate and solve problems. Aimed at preparing creative and independent investigators and knowledgeable professionals, the Course will encourage the debate of recent topics and the use of advanced experimental technologies. These objectives will further engage the contribution of teaching staff from other institutions, pharmaceutical industry, and biotechs.

In this openness perspective, the student will have the option to obtain credits in other related scientific areas within the University of Lisbon, not restricted to the Faculty of Pharmacy, stimulating mobility. The Course will benefit from the close interaction with R&D units in academia and outside, including renowned international institutions.

The structure of the Course in elective modules, except for the mandatory units of Scientific Writing and Communication and Experimental Design of Research and Innovation, allows students to follow an individualized path, according to their objectives. Learning will be, in this context, clearly directed towards solid scientific training, under tutorial guidance, in accordance with the guidelines of the Bologna Process, based on the vast scientific-pedagogical experience of the teaching staff.
